

Yerwood Center

“A center for excellence”

The Yerwood Center is a community resource center providing educational and personal development opportunities to Stamford’s diverse community

EMPLOYMENT APPLICATION

History

The Yerwood Center was founded 1943 as the Stamford Negro Community Center and later as the West Side Community Center, by the first African American female Doctor in the State of Connecticut. Over the past 65 years, Yerwood has been a safe-haven community center providing affordable and convenient educational, recreational, and life skills programs to families and particularly K-12 youth in Stamford’s inner-city communities. Our programs provide academic enrichment in a safe and stimulating environment and are designed to promote physical, social, emotional, creative, and most importantly, intellectual development of every child and person involved.

Equal Opportunity Employer

The Yerwood Center is an Equal Opportunity Employer and considers all applications for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, age, national origin, disability/handicap, veteran status or any other protected group status under federal, state, and local law. In addition, Yerwood complies with applicable federal, state, and local laws prohibiting discrimination in employment. Yerwood also provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities in accordance with applicable laws. Only individuals who have an unrestricted right to work in the United States are eligible for employment.
